

Wyoming Food Safety Rule 2006

Administered by the Wyoming Department of Agriculture – Consumer Health Services

Wyoming Statute 35-7-124(a) states: Any person processing, distributing, storing or preparing food for wholesale or retail use shall obtain a license from the department of agriculture or a local health department. The license is not transferable, shall be renewed on an annual basis. No establishment or processing plant shall serve, hold for sale or sell food to the public without a valid license.

Wyoming Food Safety Rule Chapter 9 Section 41 (a) states: A private home, ... may not be used for conducting an establishment or processing plant operations.

Therefore, anyone preparing food must meet the licensing and facility requirements of the Wyoming Food Safety Rule for an approved establishment. All labeling requirements must also be met according to the Rule.
